Pedro Domecq's Sherries

are revelations to persons conversant only with the average trade article and equally so to purchasers of rare Sherries at fancy prices. It is Washington's good fortune to be able to select from the Spanish shipping casks among nineteen standards, several of which no other house in any city can show, the grandest of Domecq's Wines at the sole distributors here.

Chris. Xander's Quality House,
909 Seventh Street.

The fame of the ancient firm of Pedro Domecq (established in Xerez, 1730) dates from their shipments to Great Britain, 74 years ago. And the position of the qualities of Domecq's Sherries remains permanent. Never were their standards lowered. Present shipments are of the same age and delicacy as of yore. Millions of dollars' worth of their Sherries fill Domecq's bodegas in larger quantities than ever before. The stock of Centurian Wines and soleras (Mother Wines) has not been weakened, those ancient Wines are kept unaltered by the system of replacing from the next oldest Mother wines the moderate percentage annually used for shipment. Natural amalgam ensues readily within a year. The cheapest kind in Chris. Xander's stock, Domecq's Xerez Palido, is two points higher than the best ordinary in trade. Amontillado of 1858, 1860, and 1862, Manzanilla, 21 years of age and of highest perfection, a forty years old Xerezano, equal to any heilloom Madeira, Very Old Brown Sherry, Vintage Sherries of 1815 and 1816; such Wines in absolutely genuine AND AT FIRST HAND PRICES will surprise connoisseurs on tasting them. Send for price list. Telephone 2, 885. Remember Rioja Castilian Claret.
